

Rebecca Hawk (she/her) serves as the Board Liaison with the Ally Theatre Company Board of Directors. Rebecca has been a sidelines-supporter of Voices Unbarred from its inception and became actively involved with the organization when VU merged with Ally Theatre Company. Rebecca currently works as an EMT at a Level-1 trauma center and believes that compassion should be at the core of patient care. Previously, Rebecca worked in nonprofit management - most recently managing the executive office and boards of a large professional association in Washington, DC.
